

Cogent Labs: Annual Trip Policy

Purpose:

To provide guidelines for organizing company-supported domestic trips while maintaining budgetary discipline, ensuring fairness, and encouraging team bonding and learning experiences.

1. Eligibility:

- All permanent team members of Cogent Labs are eligible.
- Trips may be organized for teams, departments, or the whole company.
- Employees must have completed their probation to avail company contribution.
- A minimum of 5 employees from the company must participate in the trip for it to be eligible for company contribution.

2. Trip Duration:

- Supported trips are limited to approved days off
- These days will be included in their annual leaves as per the policy
- Longer trips require special approval from management.

3. Coverage & Contribution:

- The company will contribute 70% of the trip cost or a standard base amount of PKR 25,000, whichever is lower.
- Any additional costs above the approved contribution are the responsibility of the employees.
Proper receipts (on letter heads) are required for reimbursement.
- Reimbursement will be processed after the completion of the trip.

4. Trip Approval Process:

- Employees must submit a Trip Request Form with proposed itinerary and cost estimates.
- Management will review and approve trips based on budget, relevance, and team participation.

5. Payment & Reimbursement:

- Employees should make bookings as per approved trips.
- Reimbursement will be processed after submission of proper receipts (on letter heads).
- Email all supporting documents to hr@cogentlabs.co and cc azim.iqbal@cogentlabs.co

- Company contribution will be reimbursed by the 10th of the following month.

6. Conduct During Trips:

- Employees are expected to uphold professional and respectful behavior at all times.
Any actions resulting in fines, penalties, or damages will be the employee's responsibility.

7. Policy Review:

- This policy will be reviewed annually or as per changes in travel costs or company strategy.
